

ENVIRONMENTAL AND SAFETY STUDIES, PROJECTS, AND ADVICE

BFC Consulting has accredited support organizations and proven experience in the field, high interest in environmental and safety aspects, with high customer service orientation, to cover each of the concepts involved in studies, projects and environmental and safety advice accordance with applicable laws and regulations, such as:

- ❖ Implementation of environmental audits, environmental assessments for the endorsement of the certificate as a clean industry and opinion tracking and completion of action plans agreed with PROFEPA, such as verification unit with Registered No. uvprofepa-020, accredited and approved by the EMA and PROFEPA involving auditors and coordinators or specialists accredited environmental auditors and/or experience in environmental audits in accordance with applicable regulations and guidelines issued by the current PROFEPA.
- ❖ Implementation of Environmental Management Systems (Environmental Management System, ISO 14001:2004)
- ❖ Atlas of risk for the petrochemical industry.
- ❖ Technical assistance for the effective implementation, recognized and at the lowest cost, plans, or programs established or concerted actions with authority.
- ❖ Planning and environmental planning.
- ❖ Environmental impact studies.
- ❖ Environmental Diagnostics Phase I, Phase II, or Phase III. (ASTM E 1528)
- ❖ Preparation of studies of risk analysis, emergency response plan (ERP) and programs for the prevention of accidents (PPA) and internal civil protection programs.
- ❖ Studies, surveys, and environmental monitoring.
- ❖ Safety audits in accordance with applicable labor regulations and studies in accordance with current regulations issued by the Secretary of Labor and Social Welfare (STPS).

- ❖ Consulting and design of fire systems, temporary storage of hazardous waste, projects and/or courses for handling, transportation, disposal or final treatment.
- ❖ Design specific training programs and delivery of courses in environmental (enforcement of environmental audits, environmental management systems, environmental regulation applicable by type of industry, risk, health, and safety, hazardous waste, water, air, soil, and subsoil) and training internal environmental auditors in companies.
- ❖ Management procedures and authorizations on environmental matter (unique environmental license and annual certificate of operation, risk studies and PPA's, among others).